Subject: Request for permission to use the library after school hours

Respected Sir/Madam,

I am a student of Class XI in your school. I am writing to request your kind permission to use the school library after regular school hours.

I wish to spend some extra time in the library to read reference books and newspapers, which will help me improve my knowledge and prepare better for exams. I assure you that I will follow all library rules and maintain proper discipline.

I kindly request you to allow me to use the library for one extra hour after school each day.

Thank you for your consideration.

Yours faithfully,

Rahul Sharma

Sample Informal Letter

Write a letter to your friend telling him about your new hobby.

Answer:

45, Rose Garden
Chennai – 600045

30th August 2025

Dear Rohan,

How are you? I hope you are doing well. I am writing this letter to share something exciting with you. I have recently started a new hobby—gardening!

Every evening, I spend some time watering the plants, planting new flowers, and taking care of them. It makes me feel happy and relaxed. I have also grown some vegetables like tomatoes and spinach. It feels so good to see them grow.

Next time you visit my house, I will show you my little garden. I am sure you will enjoy it too.
Do write back and tell me about your hobbies.

With love,
Your friend,
Arjun

My Favourite Festival – Diwali

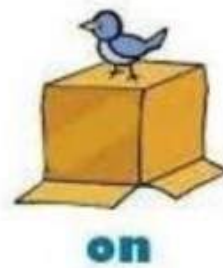

⚡ [My favourite festival is Diwali, the festival of lights.] On this day, people clean and decorate their houses with lamps and rangoli. In the evening, we worship Goddess Lakshmi and Lord Ganesha for happiness and prosperity. pear

⚡ (I love lighting diyas and bursting a few crackers with my family. The sweets and gifts make the festival even more special.) Diwali brings joy, brightness, and togetherness. It is truly the happiest festival for me.)

What is a Clause?

A clause is a group of words that has a subject (doer) and a predicate (verb). Unlike a phrase, a clause always has a verb.

क्रिया

Types of Clauses

1. Independent Clause (Main Clause):

- It expresses a complete thought.
- Can stand alone as a sentence.

Examples:

- She is reading a book.
- The children are playing.
- I like apples.

2. Dependent Clause (Subordinate Clause)

- It cannot stand alone.
- Depends on the main clause for meaning.
- Begins with subordinating words like because, although, if, when, who, that, which, since, unless, etc.

She is late because she is ill.

Types of Clauses

1. Simple Sentence:

- A simple sentence has only one independent clause (a complete thought).
- It contains a subject and a predicate.

Examples:

- The sun is shining.
- She loves reading.
- Rahul plays football.

2. Compound Sentence:

- A compound sentence has two or more independent clauses joined by a coordinating conjunction (for, and, nor, but, or, yet, so) or a semicolon.

Examples:

- [I wanted to go to the park] but [it started raining].
- (She cooked dinner) and [he washed the dishes].
- (The bell rang) (the students rushed out).

3. Complex Sentence:

- A complex sentence has one independent clause and one or more dependent (subordinate) clauses.
- The dependent clause usually begins with words like because, although, since, if, when, which, who, that, while.

Examples:

- I stayed home because it was raining.
- The boy who won the race is my friend.
- She was happy when she heard the news.

Types of Clauses

Quick Tip to Identify:

- Simple → one idea.
- Compound → two equal ideas joined with and, but, so, etc.
- Complex → main idea + supporting idea (dependent on the main).

Question

Join the sentences using the word given in brackets:

1. I stayed at home. It was raining. (because)
2. The man is very old. He can run fast. Though the man is very old, he can run fast. (though)
3. She was not well. She went to school. (although)
4. I know ~~this~~. He is a good boy. that (that)
5. We will go for a picnic. The weather is fine. if (if)
6. This is the girl, She won the prize. who (who)
7. He is the teacher, He taught me English. who (who)
8. We went to the park. We played cricket. where (where)
9. Wait here, I come back. till (till)
10. I was late, The train had left. when (when)
